i. History of the Institution – Ursuline Primary Teachers’ Education College, Chandarpura came into existence on September 22nd 2007. The establishment of a Primary Teachers’ Educational College was an urgent need in Pakur district which has the lowest literacy rate in the state of Jharkhand. So, in order to meet the growing needs of young men & women of Jharkhand, particularly of Santal Pargana the college was established. It is managed by the Ranchi Ursuline society and is administered according to the provisions of Article 30 of The Constitution of India. Each year 50 students are admitted.

ii. Vision Statement – We the faculty of Ursuline Primary Teacher’s education college, Chandrapura empowered by the spirit of Jesus Christ and Led by the spirituality of our founders St. Angela Merici, and Fr. John Lombertz, are called to make conscious effects to read the signs of the times and launch out to help the students to integrated persons and torch bearer for the future generation through Christian values and education. We enable them to stand in the world respectfully, to face the challenges of life to recognize the human dignity and contribute in building up the nation.

Therefore, we will focus on the following points: -

- We guide our students to an awareness of God through spiritual leadership, preparing them for an adult response in faith.
- We provide systematic religious programmes & opportunities for students to integrate their faith, and culture with daily living.
- An Ursuline College is a home where every student is loved and respected. Therefore, we foster universal solidarity movement of value education for peace in the religious, social and cultural context of India today.
- Along with our collaborators we accompany the youth of times and commit ourselves to provide an education that will enable them to be physically strong, intellectually empowered, emotionally mature, spiritually nurtured and sensitive to social issues.
- We promote education for improvement of girls and women, in order to build up a health family, community and society.
- We, through our ministry of education, are called to be reconcilers in a fragmented world.

iii. Mission and objectives - The main objectives of Ursuline Primary Teachers’ Education College are:

- To train the students to become effective and committed teachers who are spiritually integrated and women leaders of character.
- To offer the youth such an education for life that walking in the path of truth, love, justice and peace they become promoters of progress in the country. In its academic and co- curricular activities, the college aims at the following: -
- To acquaint the trainees with human and moral values, so that they may live the present and future with confidence by making right choices of these values.
- To bring harmony between their faith-life and demand for justice.
- To let them experience that fidelity to their commitment depends Upon the vitality of their confidence.

- To train the trainees in such a way that as truly committed and collaborative teachers, they may contribute towards the building up of a new society through new technology and social changes.

To educate the girls and young women in a spirit of SERVICE TO THE HUMANITY IS THE MAIN AIM AND OBJECTIVE of this institute. The priorities of this Institution are not only to attain academic excellence in education, but also formation of girls and young women in discipline, hard work, moral and religious values.

These priorities are meant:

- To prepare them for life, by promoting intellectual development, uprightness of character, emotional maturity, spirit of healthy competition and sportsmanship.
- To gain moral sensitivity to the needs and rights of others, especially the poor.
- To inculcate in them religious tolerance, national unity and integration.

It is the primary aim of college that the student who take their training here, become integrated and well- formed guides who will companion the young learners in their journey of becoming fully human, fully alive.
